

East Hampton Parks & Recreation
Expectations for CITs
Summer Camps

- I will speak appropriately to parents, children, and your supervisors. Also, I will listen with respect when someone else is speaking.
- I will behave professionally while at Camp or wearing a CIT shirt. (This includes while you're on a field trip or anywhere outside of Camp)
- I will arrive 15 minutes prior to the start of the Camp day and leave only after checking out with the counselor in your group.
- I will follow all Summer Camp policies and procedures, specifically in how I speak to kids, how I supervise them, and how I communicate with peers and counselors at Camp.
- I will assist counselors in planning appropriate activities and crafts that match the skill level of the children. Remember, you are not playing with your peers!
- I will greet all parents and campers with a smile. I will work hard to make every camper feel welcome. ☺
- If a parent has a question and you do not have an answer, direct them to the counselor in your group. Do not make assumptions and do not pass along false information. There is no such thing as a stupid question.
- I will bring a lunch, sunscreen, swimsuit (one piece for girls), towel, backpack, water bottle, and closed-toed shoes every day.
- I will speak positively about Camp. Camp's success depends on your everyday actions.
- I understand that personal cell phones are not allowed at any time during camp. Phones should be turned off throughout the Camp day and not taken out at any point unless special permission is given by your supervisors.
- I will follow the dress code at all times or you will be asked to change. Staff shirts must be worn each day along with clean (non-ripped) shorts/pants.
- I will not post pictures or comments concerning Camp or other program on Facebook, Twitter, or other social-media outlets.
- I will not "friend" campers, counselors or parents on Facebook, Twitter, or other social-media outlets.
- I will be consistent when enforcing the rules. I will not show favoritism toward one child over another.
- In the event I need to be absent from Camp, I will let the counselor in my group know at least two days in advance.
- I will be a team player! We are nothing without each other. We can only succeed when everyone performs their role.
- I will take responsibility for my actions. Attitude is a choice. Choose it carefully.
- I will be a positive role model and exhibit appropriate behavior.
- Bring ENERGY and ENTHUSIASM with you every day! ☺

I understand and agree to abide by the above Expectations:
